A Sailor's Nightmare

Look at all the perty girls.

Sid Mitchell points out something of interest (probably a bikini) to Dave Shay on the porch of the Nautico Olivos. Note flags of participants overhead.
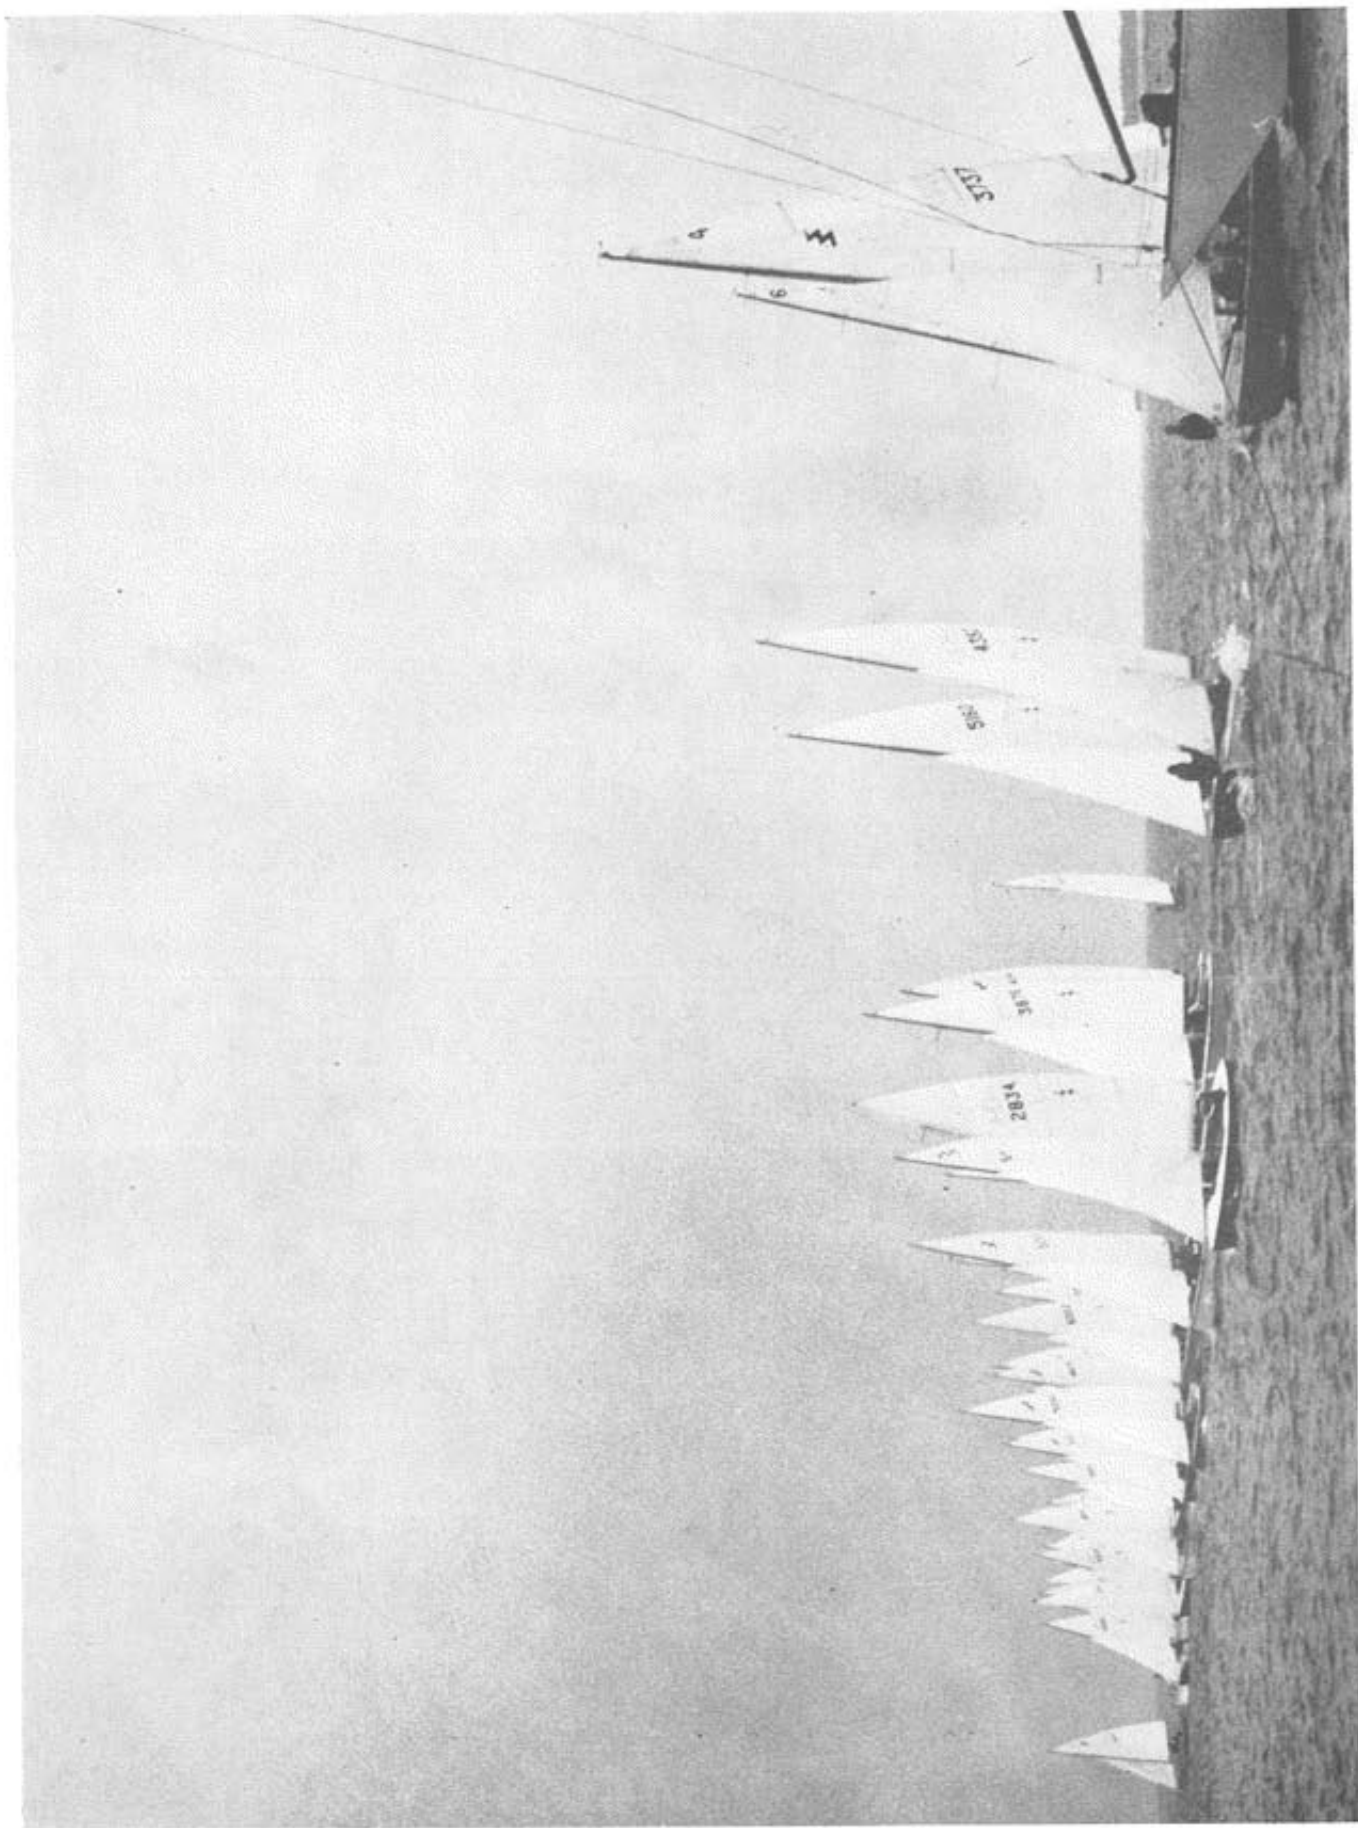

L.C.A. Officers at Winter Meeting in St. Pete. Seated, left to right—Ross Allen, Cliff Prados, Jay Donnovan. Standing—Bob Crane, Ted Jocelyn, Pat Young, Bob Mann.

Looks like that garage is on port tack.

These hurricanes are really rough.
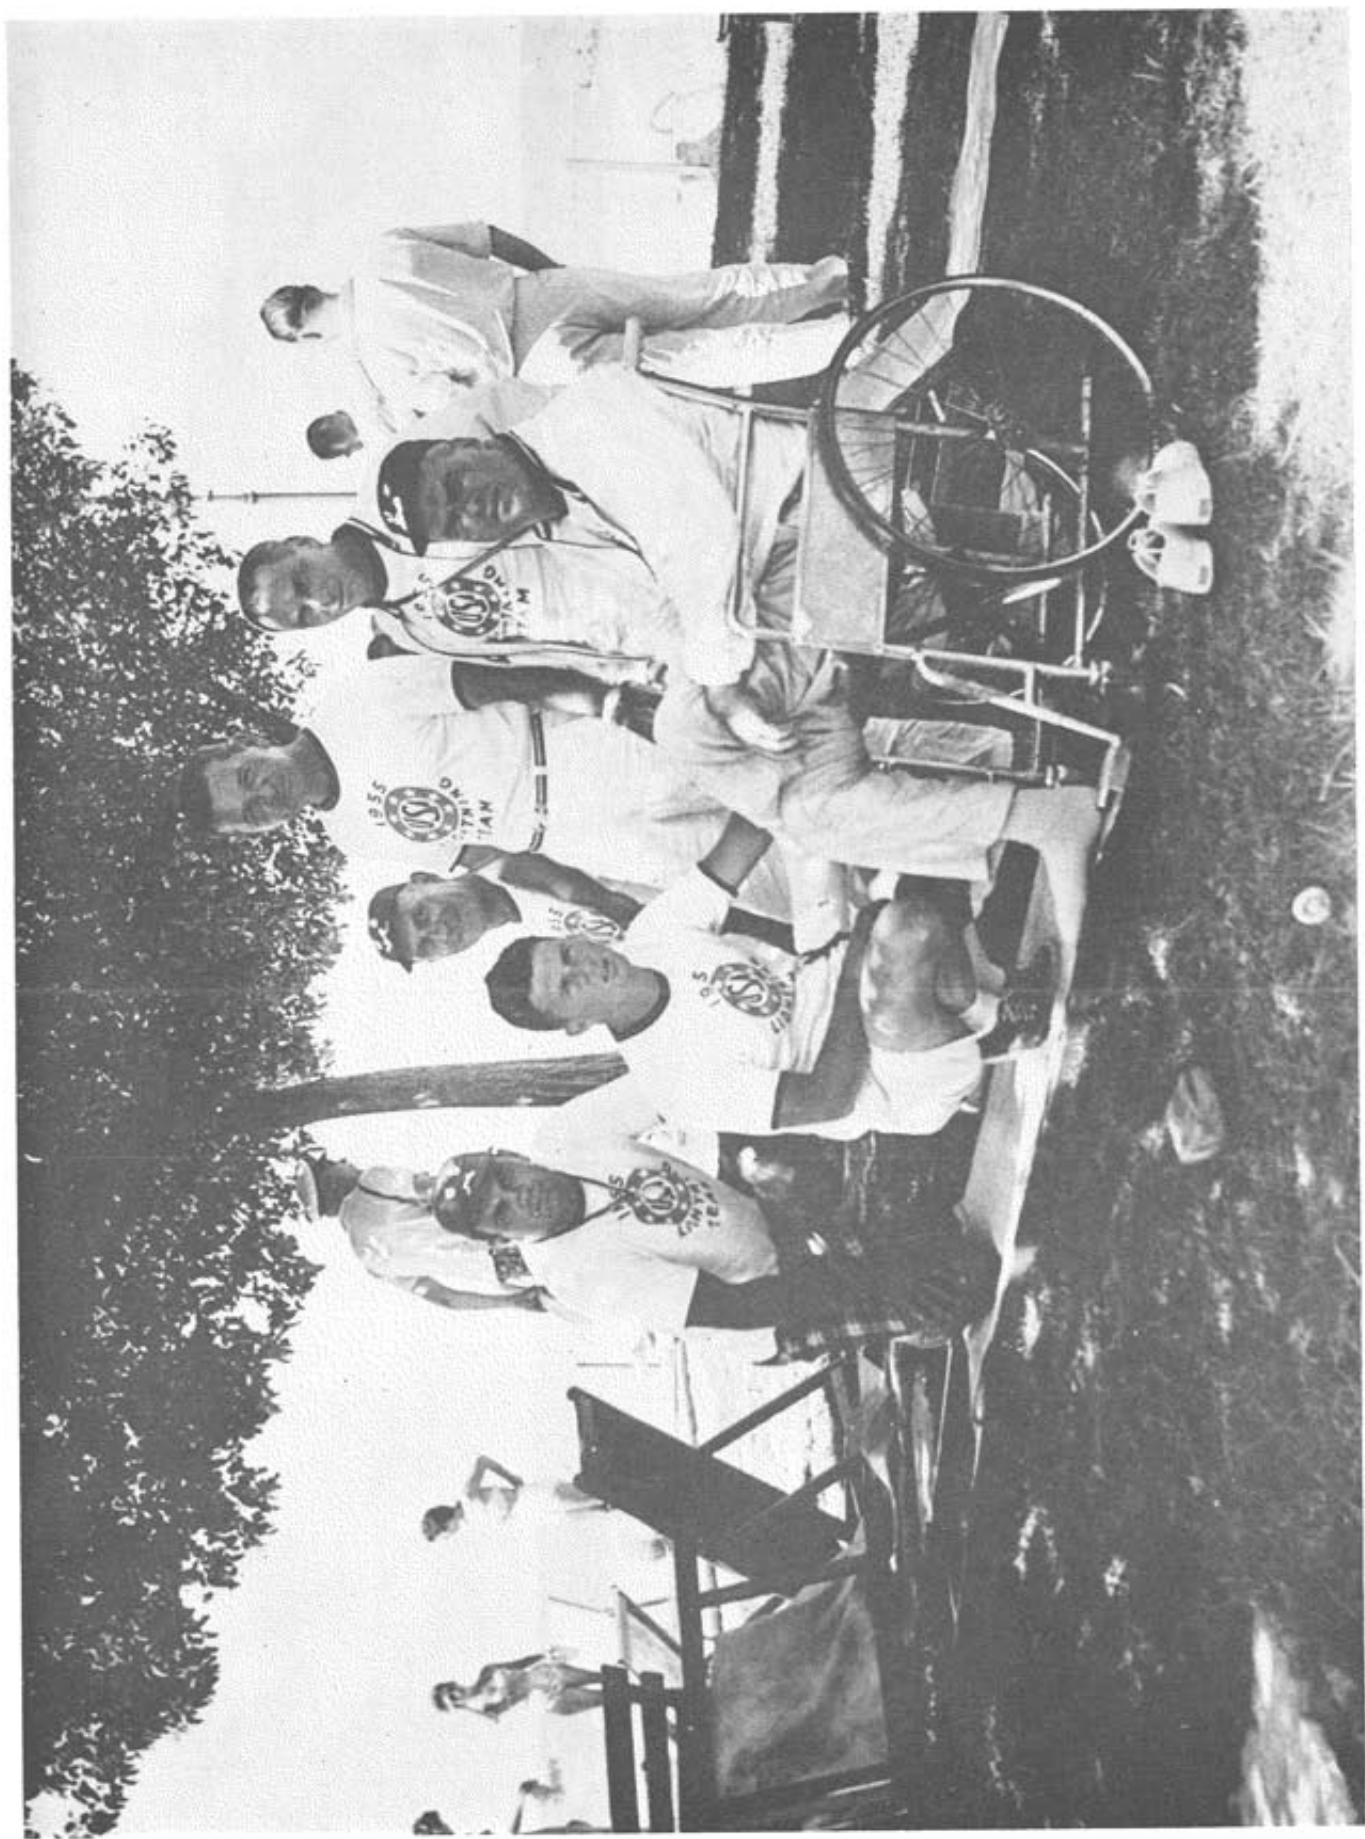

There's a lot of sailboats in there.

Our newly weds the Schudels and Youngs best man is on the left

Man, this is livin'!

Just a couple of river boat characters. Marge and Al Oberson

Boys!—Let's stay away from those Bikini's Now!

After The Big Blow

Carrying the crew rather high, aren't you skipper?

Sailors eating at the new club house, home of the Tawas Bay Yacht Club and Tawas Bay Lightning Fleet No. 152. The new club will be ready for the 1955 sailing season.

This is Gene Walet looking through hole blown in the bottom of his boat, Spirit II by a firecracker during the Southern District Championship at Bay St. Louis (July 8, 1954) Our Fleet motto: "If you can't beat them, blow them up."

Carlos deCardenas' KURUSH V

World Champion of the Star Class

(Four firsts and one second—one point from a perfect score!)

This is the amazing record of "Charlie" deCardenas and his Murphy and Nye sails.

We'd like the opportunity to make a suit of sails like this for your Lightning.
