

The Gallery

*Miami Maverick—Jack Mueller seeks his spot on the line.
Jim Dressel (12060) successfully port-tacks the Miami start.
Intense aerodynamic study.*

The colorful Mr. and Mrs. Lightning—the Smithers on Coral Reef Y.C. committee boat.

Past President and Champion Hank Cawthra primed as ever prior to his last race before retirement at 1972 Michigan District Championship. Photo: Dave Peters

Southern Circuit and Miami 1972 winner Tom Allen hauls out after final race at Coral Reef Yacht Club.

A question of right-of-way during Larchmont Junior Race Week. Photo: Mitch Carnesi

Room at the mark—Please!

Parke Photo, Dover, Delaware

Weather mark rounding during Trofeo Braniff at Salinas, Ecuador. Alberto Maspons leads Bill Shore, Werner Moeller and Felipe Eljuri 11928.

Bill Shore reaches away from the North American fleet.
Parke Photo, Dover, Delaware

Action in Ecuador at the 1972 Trofeo Braniff. Bill and Bonnie Shore prepare for a race, and below Federico Meiro hikes with them under spinnaker. (Above) Winner Tom Allen leads runner-up Jim Dressel around weather mark.

(Left) Three hikers versus one chute. (Below) In line for haul-out at Rehoboth, Parke Photos, Dover, Delaware

Miami light air start.

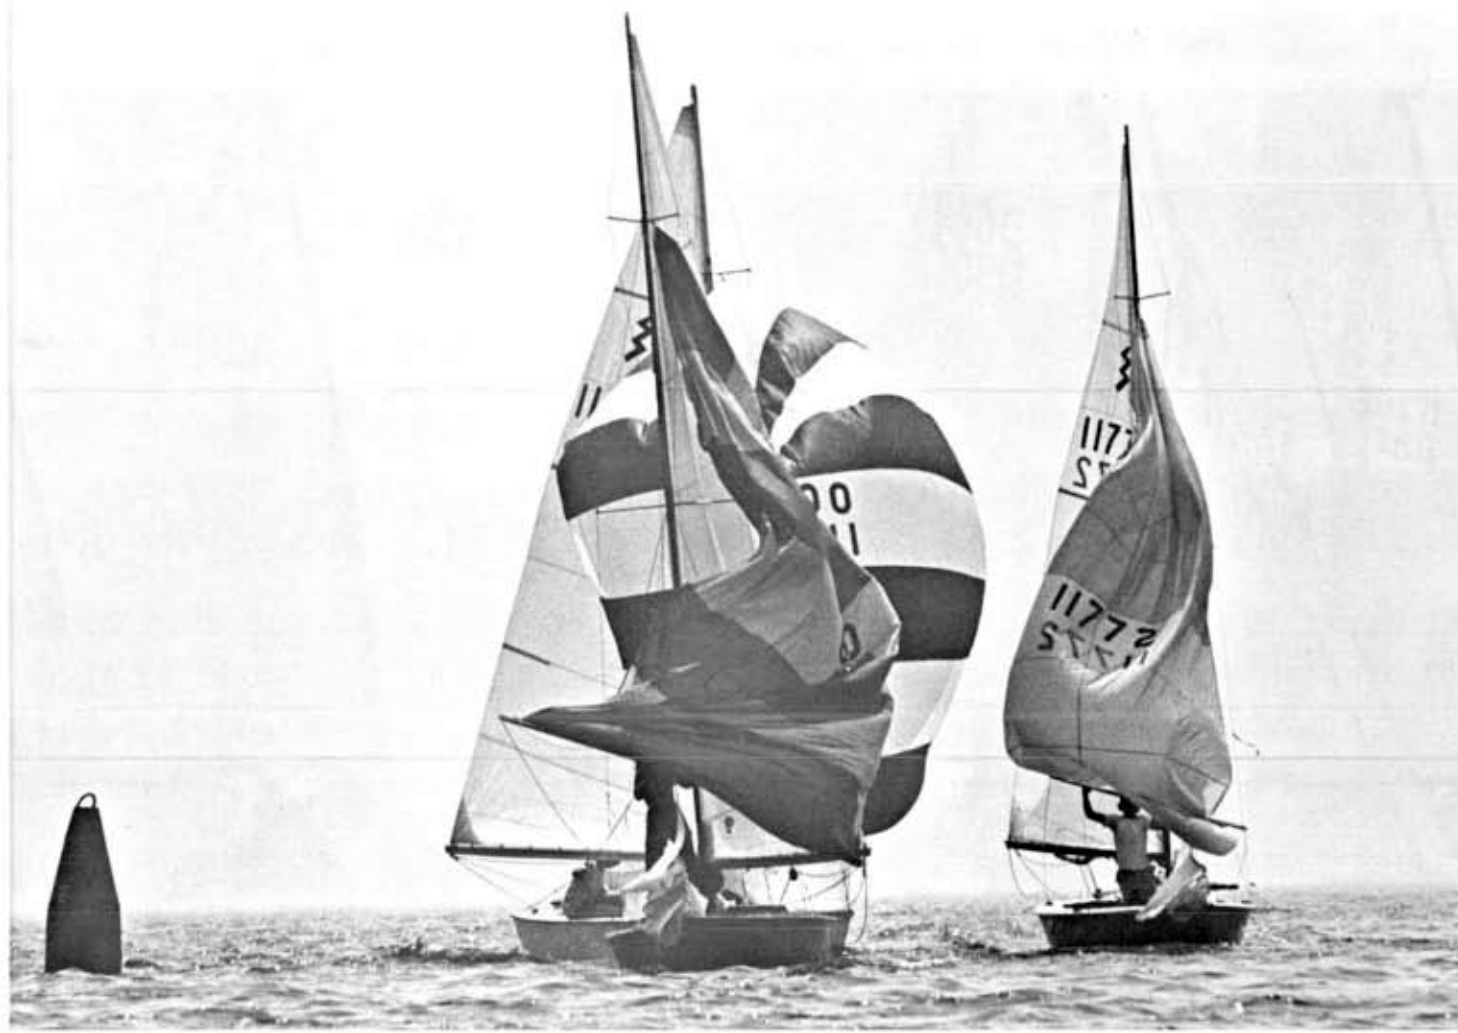

Bruce Goldsmith (12047) and friends search for clear air after a Miami start.

A jibe ballet on Rehoboth Bay, Parke Photos, Dover, Delaware

A trio of Long Island Sound jibes during Larchmont Junior Race Week, Photo: Mitch Carucci

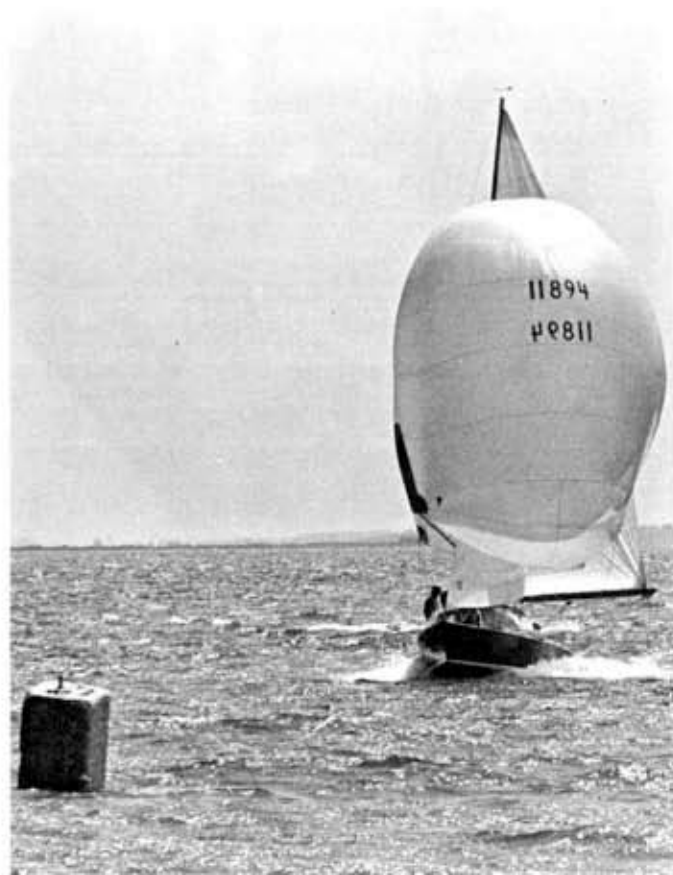

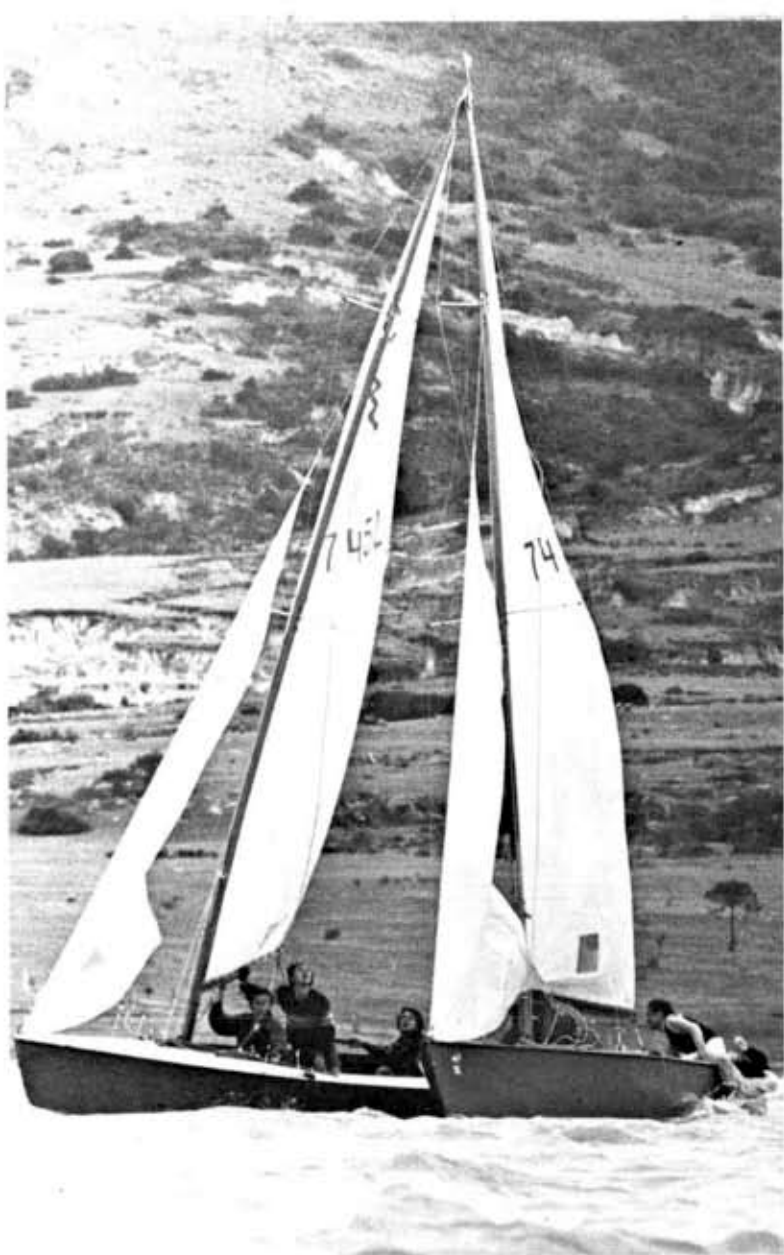

The Demarest crew (11954) executes a heavy air jibe in the North Americans.

Bill Newman (11894) planes up to the Rehoboth Bay jibe mark.

John Schneider (12066) flat-out in the President's Cup.

Parke Photos, Dover, Delaware

Trouble in Colombia—locked masts during a Fleet 432 (Club Nautico Del Tomine) race.

A misnomer for Bruce Cossachi in Gusto.

Foggy morn on Grand Traverse Bay. Hank Callahan looks for the sun. Photo: Dave Peters

Running-a-muck.

Photo: Dave Olson, Vancouver, Wash.

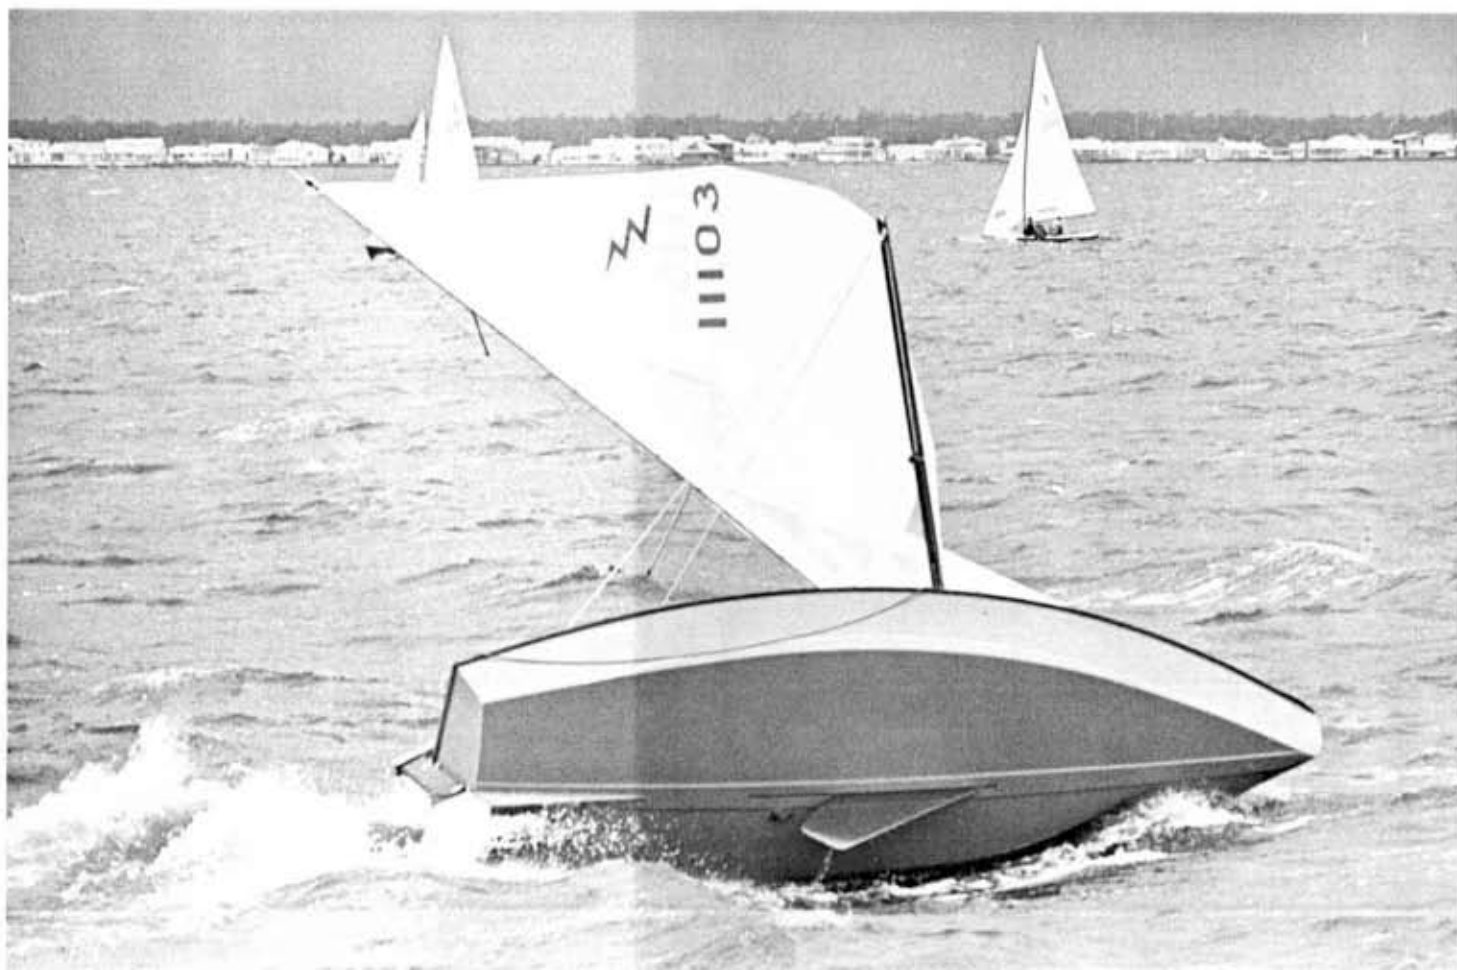

Moments of distress during Ecuador's Trofeo Braniff, Bill Shore (12175) with a loose spinnaker halyard and Andres Lisocki (3041) with an immediate need to hike.

Dave Ruiter (11103) in a seriously compromising position on Barnegat Bay during the Atlantic Coast Championship.

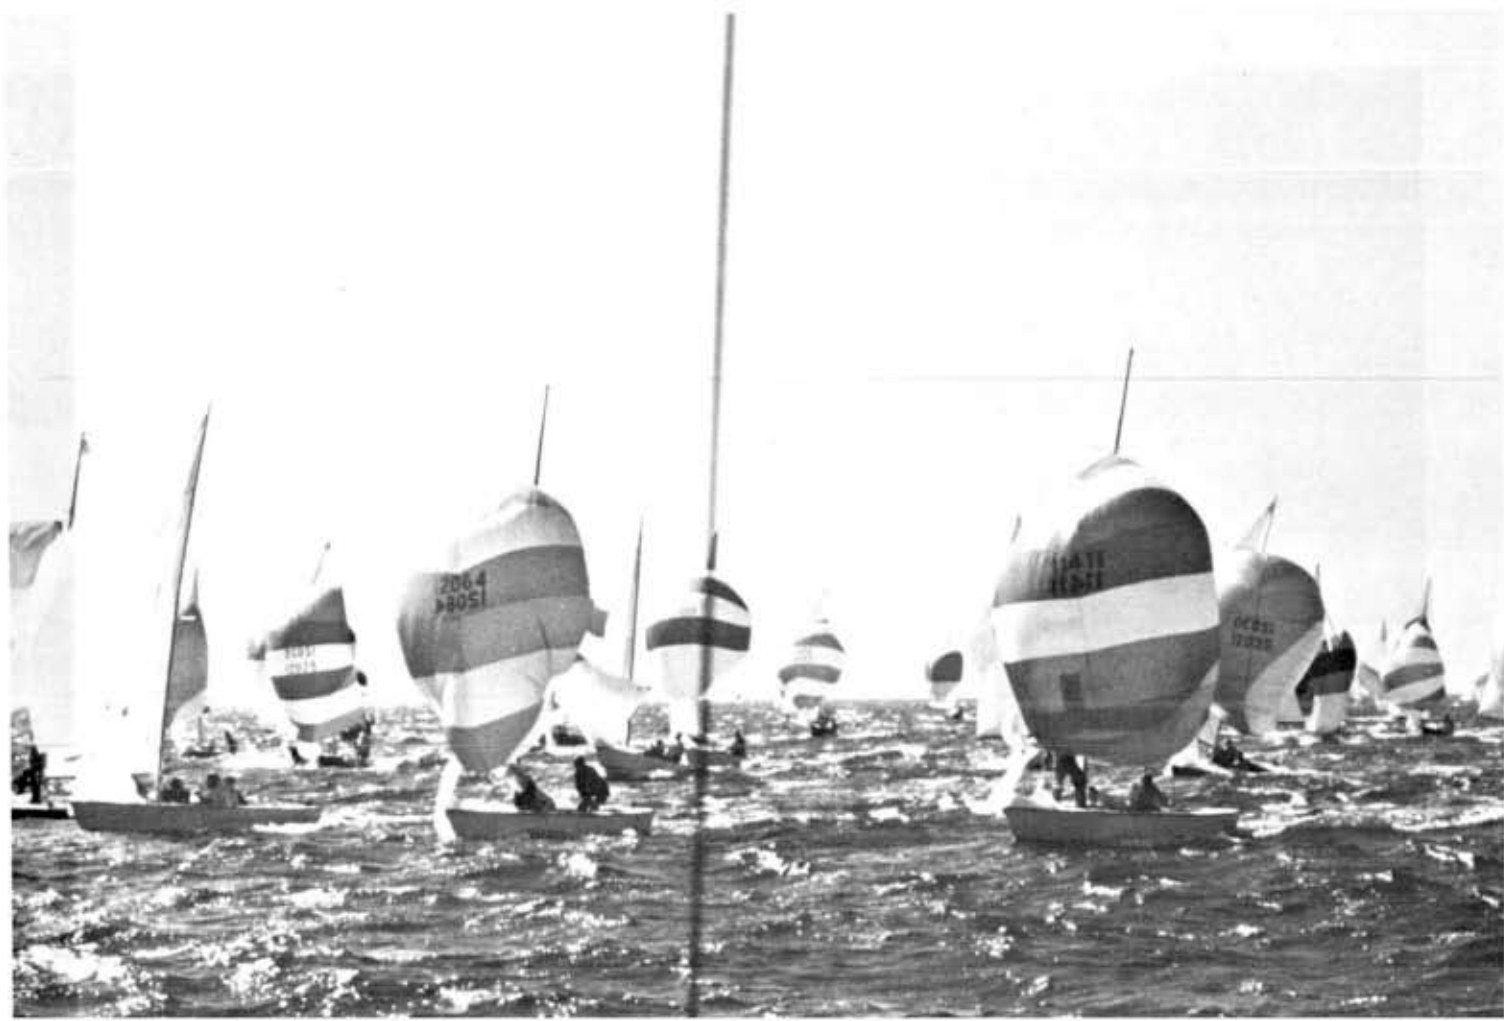

Photo: Ashbury Park Press

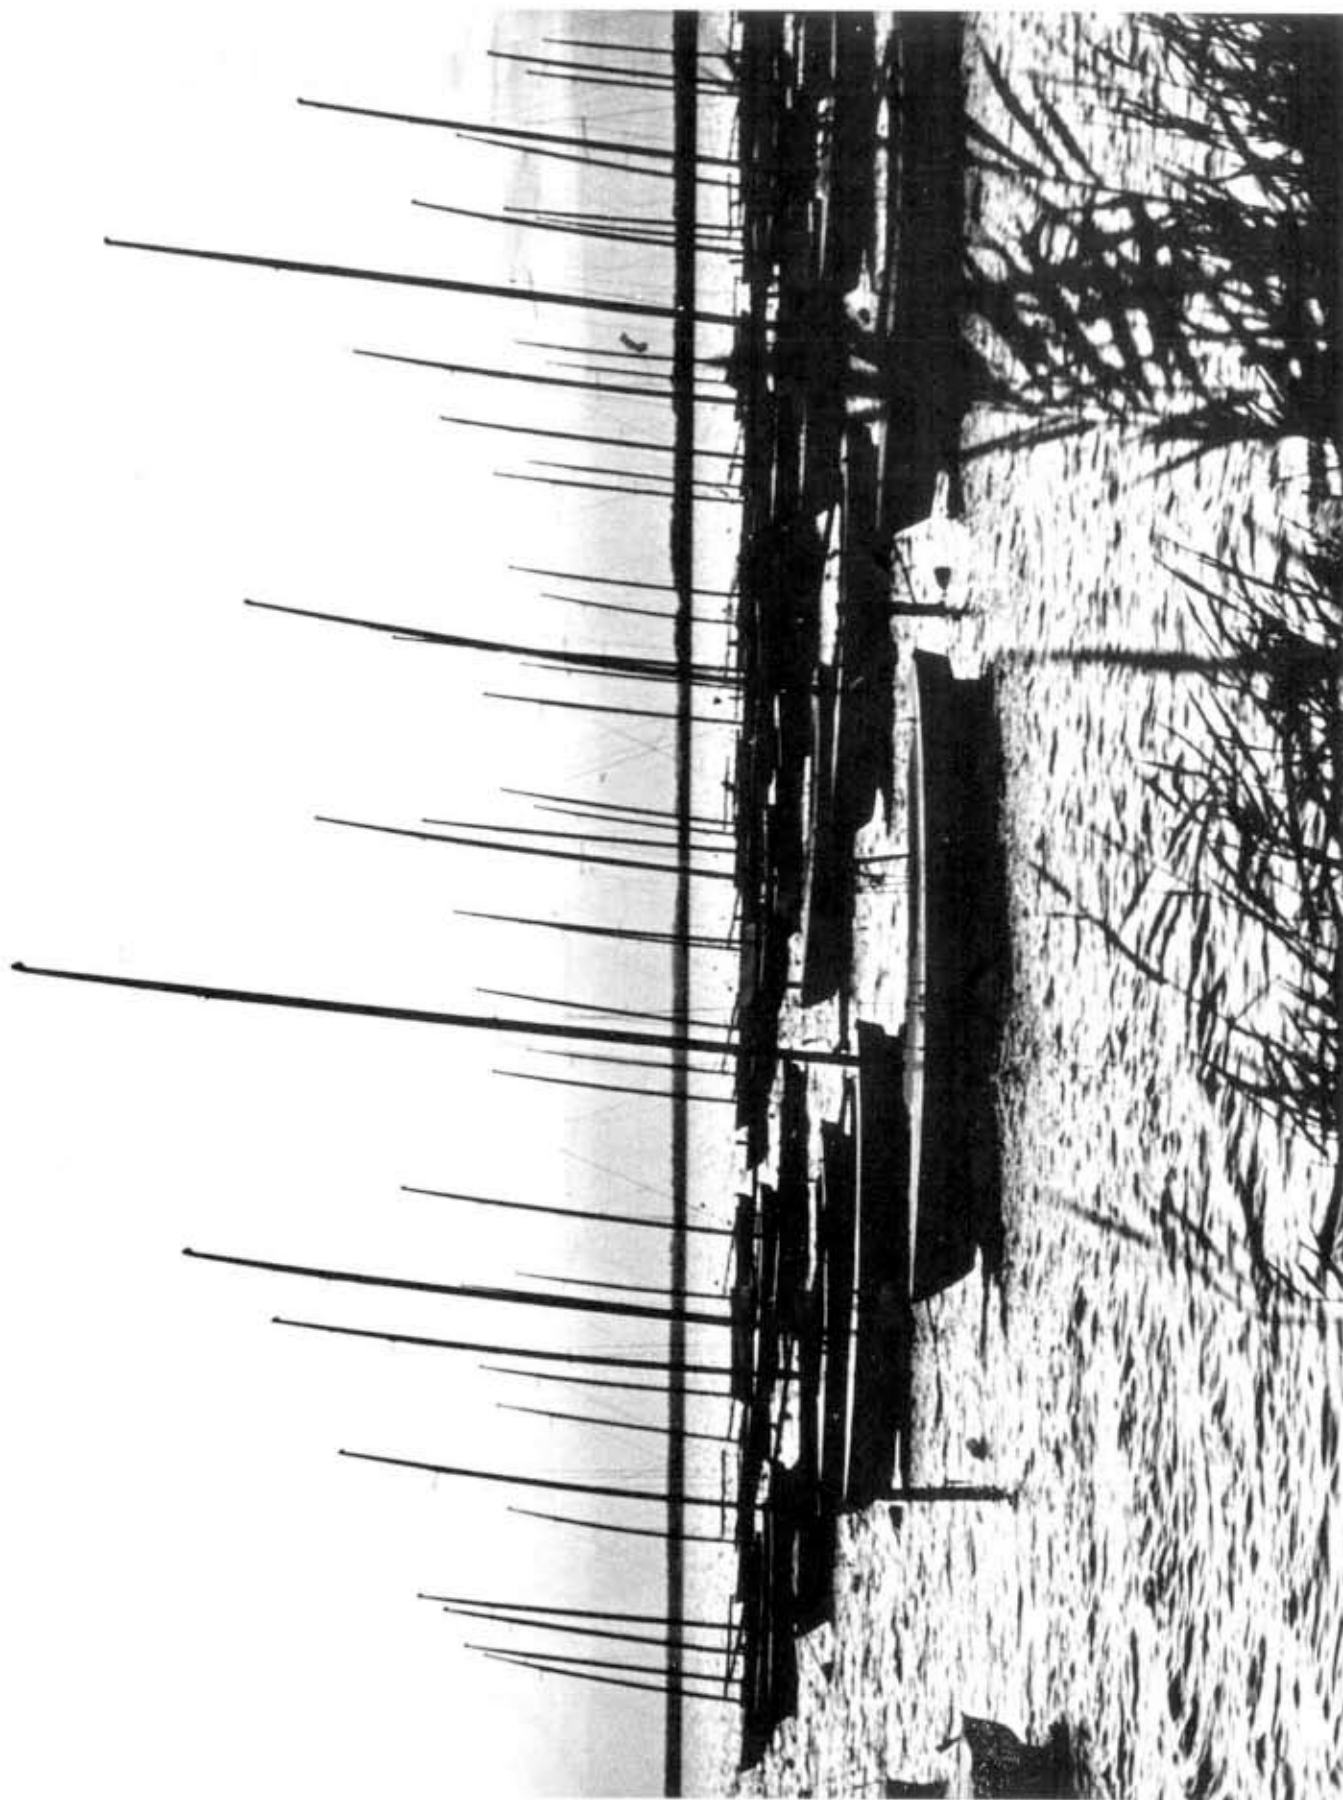

Bruce Goldsmith (12047) and Bill Shore (12051) in hot pursuit at St. Petersburg Winter Championship.

Spinnaker panorama on Tampa Bay. Photos: Paul Schem, St. Pete.

Waiting for a new day.

Parke Photo, Dover, Delaware