EDITOR'S PAGE

Being Editors of the Lightning Class Year Book could have been a painstakingly dull job built upon thousands of words, but the Editors have some words of their own.

Let us tell you that although there were a lot of words and it was quite a lot of work, it was rewarding and fun and the reasons for our good fortune were as follows: First of all, there are two hard working people who are the backbone of every year book—Lou Madden, our patient publisher and advertising manager, and our own Margaret Teske, who does most of the year book single-handedly.

Secondly, we had 100% cooperation from everyone we asked to write an article or get together some pictures and we had good response for fleet and district reports.

Lastly, if Lees Fox is tired of typing and if she and Peggy Mead are looking cross-eyed from proofreading, our only excuse is that we did a lot of thinking and some of our thinking extends to next year's editors.

We would like to see 100% of all fleets and districts send in a report for next year because after all this year book belongs to the whole class and it's for their benefit and enjoyment.

And finally, a heartfelt "thank you" for our advertisers who really make the whole thing possible and we recommend their support by all our readers.

We hope to see many of you from the first regatta of the season, right up to THE END.
